

The Artist's Paris
An In-Depth Sketchbook and Art History Exploration
September 29 - October 5, 2017

Join us for an in-depth sketchbook workshop in Paris! We'll be exploring exciting new areas, plus revisiting some of our favorites, with a more concentrated focus on drawing and painting than in previous Paris workshops.

Included

- 5 days and nights in Paris, with a small group and personalized instruction — plus an optional 6th day and night, for a trip to Giverny (see Workshop Extension details below)
- Double occupancy in a quiet, three-star Left Bank hotel
- Daily breakfast, three inspirational lunches, a welcome reception, and a fantastic farewell dinner
- Guided museum visits, focused drawing activities, and guided walks that get you off the beaten path and allow you to experience art in many forms
- Your own travel sketchbook
- A personalized notebook, with additional Paris addresses of particular interest that will help you discover arts venues, restaurants, shopping, and more
- Paris museum pass that provides fast and free entry to the city's best museums
- Paris métro tickets that let you navigate the city like a native
- Recommendations for and help arranging optional activities

Not included

- Transportation to Paris, airport transfers, two lunches, some dinners
- Personal expenses, passports, and travel insurance

Please note: We'll explore several neighborhoods on foot, and we'll use the Métro to move between neighborhoods, just as native Parisians do. Our travels will include cobbled pavement and stairs. If you're not accustomed to walking, we encourage you to begin walking on a regular basis now. This preparation will increase your stamina in Paris - meaning you'll enjoy the experience that much more.
